

HOLLY HUNT RUGS

Cover: Arabesque / Below: Ultimo

A close-up photograph of a rug's surface, showing a transition from a deep blue section in the upper left to a light beige section in the lower right. The texture is highly detailed, showing the individual fibers and the way light reflects off the surface, creating a sense of depth and movement. The blue section has a slightly more pronounced texture than the beige section.

HOLLY HUNT RUGS are comprised of the finest natural materials in silk, wool, linen, or hemp yarns reflecting luster. Every rug is produced by hand in Nepal by dedicated artisans, and can take up to 5,000 hours to create. The result is a piece of art designed to last for generations.
