Some of the design effects in this issue, recreated by Augusta Pownall

1 In this shot, artist Isamu Noguchi disappears in a forest of his paper-light sculptures, made in Gifu, central Japan, from bamboo and handmade washi paper. A single light will make a statement, as it does above Younes Zrikem's dining table (page 107). '30P', seen here, costs $1,085 from the Noguchi Museum. Ring 001 718 204 7088, or visit shop.noguchi.org.

2 Morocco couldn't be much further away from Venice, style-wise, but this Venetian 'Salerno' mirror, £198, is a good reflection of the one in Casablanca (page 104). Ring 01892 541355, or visit chandeliersandmirrors.co.uk.

3 The owner of this Moroccan haven does away with a tablecloth in favour of overlapping widths of grain-sack cloth (page 106). Beyond France has hand-spun ivory linens with the tell-tale blue or maroon stripes, £25 per m. This one is just over 50cm wide, perfect for doubling up. Ring 01285 642867, or visit beyondfrance.co.uk.

4 Retrouvius has a vast stock of former museum display drawers, £18 each – the place for arty types, like the ladies at La Maison du Pastel, to store their supplies (page 67). They might also be the perfect place to keep your drawers. Ring 020 8960 6060, or visit retrouvius.com.

5 No doubt the owners of the radio station like to sit back and tune in while attending to their morning ablutions. Holly Hunt's 'Odense' chair, £3,228, is a dead ringer for their antique Austrian seat (page 87) and would look natty covered in Kvadrat's woven wool 'Tonus 3', in (from left) colours '630' or '508', for £113 per m. For the chair, ring 020 7399 3280, or visit hollyhunt.com. For the fabrics, ring 020 7324 5555, or visit kvadrat.dk.

6 Those of us who are bleary-eyed in the mornings might be struck off balance by Sébastien de Ganay's own lopsided bathroom mirrors (page 87). From the 'All in One' series, part of his Art on Demand project, a pair will set you back £3,760 approx. Visit sebastiendeganay.com.
